Matakana Country Park 22 - 27 Jan 2008

Tuesday 22 Jan 8.45pm

Steep DOCUMENTARY

It started in the 1970s in the mountains above Chamonix, France, where skiers began to attempt descents so extreme that they appeared almost suicidal. This doco about Extreme Skiing needs to be enjoyed on the biggest screen possible. Directed by Mark Obenhaus with Doug Coombs, Bill Briggs, Stefano De Benedetti, Eric Pehota, Golen Plake - USA - 2007.

PG – 92min

Wednesday 23 Jan 8.45pm

Eagle vs Shark COMEDY / ROMANCE

With so much subtlety and precision in Loren Horsley and Jemaine Clement's straight-faced, oddball performances, Lily and Jarrod's attempts to reach each other are hilarious and excruciatingly real. Directed by Taika Waititi with Jemaine Clement, Loren Horsley, Brian Sergent, Joel Tobeck, Rachel House - NZ - 2007.

M – 93min

Thursday 24 Jan 8.45pm

Airguitar Nation MUSIC / PERFORMING ARTS

A hugely entertaining, frequently hilarious documentary with colorful, warm-hearted characters and an infectious energy, that'll send you bouncing out of the cinema with a goofy grin on your face. Directed by Alexandra Lipsitz with David S. Jung, Dan Crane, Zac Munro, Peter Cilella - USA - 2007.

M – 81min

Friday 25 Jan 8.45pm

The Assassination of Jesse James by the Coward Robert Ford

WESTERN / BIOGRAPHY

To an increasingly citified population, Jesse James (Brad Pitt) was the last frontiersman - a symbol of freedom and the American spirit, a charismatic rebel who flouted the law and lived by his own rules...by all accounts, a legend. Directed by Andrew Dominik with Brad Pitt, Mary-Louise Parker, Casey Affleck - USA - 2007.

R13 – 160min

Saturday 26 Jan 8.45pm

Surf's Up ANIMATION / FAMILY

Surf's Up is a laid back, visually stunning animated movie presented in a witty mockumentary format. Directed by Ash Brannon and Chris Buck with the voices of Shia LeBeouf, Diedrich Bader, Jeff Daniels, Jeff Bridges - USA - 2007.

G – 85min

Sunday 27 Jan 8.45pm

The White Planet DOCUMENTARY

With tight close ups of its magnificent wildlife, White Planet offers a magical window of life in the chill of the white Arctic. ...certainly the sort of movie that demands to be seen on as large a screen as possible. Directed by Jean Lemire, Thierry Piantanida, Thierry Ragobert, Narrator Sven Eriksson - France/Canada - 2006.
